

Happy New Year, and Thank YOU!

2019 was a wonderful year and we have you to thank. The support of our partners and communities is exactly what made last year a pivotal one for us. Our expansion with Time2Heal is an important one as it strengthens our mission and allows us to expand our services to help those who have experienced trauma an opportunity to heal and thrive.

As we kick off a new year and decade we wanted to share some highlights and successes from 2019. Also, we wanted to ask for your continued support of our programs. Donations are wonderful and always welcomed, but they are not the only way you can contribute. Please take a look at the bottom of this email for additional ways to get involved and help us on our mission to heal and empower. Happy New Year and may it be a blessed one!

2019 Highlights:

- Our Annual Gala for Domestic Violence Awareness month with a fashion show sponsored by Macy's
- Our founder Trish Steele attended @miamorgalala in NY with Luisa Diaz to celebrate kindness, honor individuals engaged in outstanding works of philanthropy and support survivors of domestic violence
- Our Safe Passage Christmas party was such a magical event. We had 40 incredible individuals from MITT (Masters In Transformational Training) choose Safe Passage as their community service project. $70k in-kind donations for our women and kids that included work shop programs, a Christmas wish list, computers to help with business needs, nutrition workshops, and more!

Ways to get involved:

- You can donate money, but you can also donate your time! Please email us if you can help in any of the following areas.
 - Office Skills e.g. Filing
 - Graphic Design
 - Organize Donations
 - Event Volunteers

Please continue to share our mission and help us heal our communities all year long.

*Gratefully,
Trish Steele
