

JANUARY 2025 NEWSLETTER

Artisan Fair: Huntington Beach, CA

Happy New Year! We're thrilled to kick off 2025 with great momentum and exciting opportunities. Safe Passage Heals had the privilege of participating in the Huntington Beach Artisan Fair, where we partnered with Sue Velasco, a true testament to resilience and empowerment.

Sue is a survivor of domestic violence, a proud single mother of two daughters, and a graduate of the Safe Passage Heals training program. She also holds the title of Ms. Orange County Ambassador FoRe! Women Crowned in Glory & Safe Passage Heals. Through our collaboration with FoRe!, we empower women to embrace their passion for supporting non-profits while promoting the prevention and healing of domestic violence.

At the fair, we engaged with the community, spreading awareness and education about domestic violence and emphasizing that healing and prevention are achievable. The event provided a fantastic opportunity to engage with the community, and Kathleen had several Divine Set-Ups that will contribute to what we do at Safe Passage Heals.

Please keep Safe Passage Heals and the women in our program in your thoughts and prayers during this challenging time with the Los Angeles fires. The recent fires have deeply impacted many of the women in our program, leaving some displaced from their homes and employment.

Your generosity can make a significant difference in helping these women rebuild their lives. A donation of any amount will go directly toward providing essential resources, temporary housing, and the support they need to recover and thrive.

Thank you for being part of this journey with us. Together, we're creating a brighter and safer future for survivors and their families. Stay tuned for more updates as we continue to grow and make an impact this year!

Thank you for considering a donation to keep the legacy of healing strong, and resilience for women in San Diego and our future generations.

Safe Passage is a 501c3 and we rely on donations like yours to help families build positive changes in their lives and our city.
